Brockville Chamber of Commerce's exceedingly popular BA5 Trade Show is back for another year!

Make new contacts, develop stronger relationships, learn best practices and be motivated by the sharing of ideas, information and experiences. Make a point of reaching out to as many of the participants as possible and bring lots of business cards to circulate for future referrals.

In celebration of small business week, we are giving you an opportunity to show off what you have to offer to our community's business leaders. Join us on October 22nd, 5 pm to 8 pm for networking and business development opportunities, not to mention, fun and prizes!

As always, this event is complimentary for members and invited guests

ALL participants must pre register.

Space is limited for this event, reserve today to avoid disappointment tomorrow!
